PhotoSnack

PhotoSnack is a wonderful app that you will come to love when you see how incredibly easy it is to add photos, create elegant HTML5 slideshows with music, and share them with your friends and family. And by the way, it's also free!

You will be delighted to see how intuitive the new PhotoSnack photo slideshow maker is and how useful are the latest updates: adding music to photo slideshows, adding photos from

Facebook, Flickr, Picasa, Photobucket, SmugMug and Instagram, and responsive slideshow templates, all free.

Power Presenter Price: $1.99

Power Presenter is the perfect app if you're looking to hook up your iPad to your Apple TV or a presenter. It's feature-rich, brings excellent support for PDF files (but the bad thing is it doesn't support natively other formats. You'll have to make PPT, HTML etc. a web-content in order to access it from within Power Presenter).

Power Presenter lets you mark on the screen to highlight, show or indicate. This is a nifty little feature that makes presenting using the iPad such a great experience.

Slideldea

Free! Slideldea for iPad is a revolutionary way of creating and – most importantly – letting audiences interact with your slides. It offers an elegant and simple interface to create slides from amazing templates and widgets. You can create slides real fast with a lot of things like images, charts and more. But much more than that, you can make them truly interactive to have people interacting with the slides real-time through their own mobile devices. It's an incredible presentation app for iPad.
